
Documentation & The Nursing Process

Lois White
developed An Internationally Consented Standard for Nursing Process-Clinical. The goal of this study was to investigate documentation of nursing care with nursing process documentation and new technology about the use of an action research. The information is collected in the nursing anamnesis. The results of this flow into an individual nursing plan for a patient nursing plan and can preset the