National Library Of Medicine Classification: A Scheme For The Shelf Arrangement Of Library Materials In The Field Of Medicine And Its Related Sciences

National Library of Medicine U.S.

National Library of Medicine classification: A scheme for the shelf arrangement of library materials in the field of medicine and its related sciences. The scheme is a system of classification intended to be used for the shelf arrangement of all library materials, regardless of format. Designed as a broad classification,